PASTOR ANDRE

The High Priestly Prayer

17

When Jesus had spoken these words, he lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, "Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him authority over all flesh, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent into the world, that you gave me to do. And now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory which I had with you before the world began."

Words of Comfort

Isaiah 40:1 (NIV)

Comfort, comfort my

people,

says your God.

Isaiah 40:2a (ESV)

Speak tenderly to

Jerusalem,

and cry to her

Isaiah 40:2b (ESV)
that her warfare
is ended,

NOTHING HAPPENS
BY COINCIDENCE

Isaiah 40:2c (ESV)
that her iniquity is
pardoned,

Isaiah 40:2c (ESV)
that her iniquity is
pardoned,

Isaiah 40:2d (ESV)
that she has received from the Lord's hand
double for all her sins.

The background features a winter scene with snow-covered evergreen trees and a path leading through a forest. The image is overlaid with a vibrant gradient from purple on the left to blue on the right, and a semi-transparent grid pattern. The text is centered and reads:

Why? What's
the Strategy

Isaiah 40:3 (ESV)

A voice cries: “In the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord; make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

Isaiah 40:4 (ESV)

Every valley shall be lifted up,
and every mountain and hill be made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain.

Isaiah 40:5 (ESV)

And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together, for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.”

A vibrant sunset scene over a desert landscape. The sky is filled with bright orange and yellow clouds, with the sun low on the horizon. In the foreground, dark, rolling sand dunes are visible. A small silhouette of a person riding a camel is positioned on the horizon line, directly behind the word "comfort?".

How does
this relate to comfort?

1 Thessalonians 4:16 (KJV)

For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

1 Thessalonians 4:17 (KJV)

Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

1 Thessalonians 4:18 (KJV)

Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

What if I get weary in well
doing?

Isaiah 40:28 (KJV)

Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding.

Isaiah 40:29 (KJV)

He giveth power to the faint;
and to them that have no
might he increaseth
strength.

Isaiah 40:30 (KJV)

Even the youths shall faint

and be weary,

and the young men shall

utterly fall:

Isaiah 40:31 (KJV)

But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.
